

S. Penka

Two-Dimensional Frequency Detection

Institute of mathematics, University of Luebeck, Germany penka@math.uni-luebeck.de

We consider the problem of detecting periodicities in two-dimensional exponential sums from sampled values. For this purpose we extend a method for the one dimensional case, which uses orthogonal polynomials on the unit circle.